Great Gathering of People to Honor Good Woman's Memory.

AN UNGRATEFUL MAN

How He Requested a Young Woman's Love-Summoned to Testify in a Case of Fraud—Some Cases Disposed of in Federal Court—Colonel Harrell Had Yellow Fever—Advised to Raise Horses.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 7.—A special from Weldon says:

The funeral of the late Mrs. Sallie Long Prescott, wife of Col. A. Prescott (who died at her home here Saturday morning), took place from Grace Episcopal Church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The services were conducted by the rector, Rev. J. T. Chambers. The funeral procession was one of the largest ever seen in Weldon. She was beloved by all, and the people came here from Jackson, Halifax, Henderson, Garysburg and other points. The casket was covered with beautiful floral offerings. Everyone appeared anxious to show by words and acts how dearly she was beloved. Every body was her friend, high and low, rich and poor, all alike feel a great personal loss in her death. Always delicate herself, yet she never failed to respond when others were sick or in distress, and by her gentle words and kindly deeds she became a ministering angel. May her soul rest in peace be the expression of every heart in Weldon. The remains were laid to rest in the family square in Cedarwood Cemetery, there to sweetly slumber until the resurrection morn.

BASE INGRATITUDE.

The Newton Enterprise of this week contains the following:

About a year ago a young lady in the Eastern part of the county put a mortgage on her land to furnish a young man she was engaged to marry $125 to go to school on. A short time afterwards he wrote to her for more money. She did not send it, and the fellow notified her that their contract was off. Yesterday the land was sold by the mortgagee to collect his note.

SUMMONED TO MISSOURI.

Mr. D. H. Senter, of the Secretary of State's office, was subpoenaed yesterday to attend Federal court in Kansas City, Mo., in the case of the United States vs. Ben H. Morse, of the "Alaska Klondike Mining and Improvement Company." It will be recalled that a detective came here some time ago to see whether the company had been in sequestration under the laws of North Carolina as alleged by Morse, who victimized widows by collecting balances limited widows supposed to have on worthless stock supposed to have been bought by their deceased husbands. Mr. Senter is wanted to testify that no such corporation has been chartered by this State, and will leave for Kansas City on Sunday next.

FEDERAL COURT AT WILMINGTON.

Judge Purnell has returned from Wilmington, where he has been holding a two weeks' term of Federal court. Two men, both negroes, were sentenced to the penitentiary, and several others, both white and colored, were given terms in jail. One of the negroes sent to the penitentiary gets a term of ten years for robbing the postoffice at Burkaw and South Washington. The other, an old crippled negro from Laurinburg, was sent up for a year and a day for retelling without license. It was his third offence. The postoffice robber had only recently finished a two-years' term for robbing a post-office. He was sentenced in May, 1897, the first court Judge Purnell held at Wilmington.

COL. HARRELL HAD YELLOW FEVER.

A letter received here from Havana announces that Col. Eugene G. Harrell has for some time been ill with yellow fever. It was thought for awhile he would never recover, but he is now much better, and last week he was able to leave the hospital, though he is terribly emaciated and wasted by his sickness. He has many friends here who hope for his speedy return to health.

ABOUT HORSES.

The November Bulletin of the Department of Agriculture will be largely devoted to the horse, the idea being to lay before the farmers of the upper Piedmont and mountain sections the desirability of breeding the French coach horse, a good seller, which has brought much money into parts of Virginia.

ELIZABETH CITY.

Elizabeth City, N. C., Nov. 7.—Last night some one broke into the store of Mr. R. W. Berry, corner of Walnut and Second streets, and stole about $10 worth of tobacco and groceries and broke the money drawer into pieces, but did not secure any cash.

STORE BURGLARIZED—SPECIAL TERM OF COURT—PERSONAL.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)

At the regular meeting of the Board of County Commissioners Monday several lawyers of the local bar applied for a special term of court to clear up the civil docket. There are quite a number of cases on the docket, among them some of interest to many here and including several manufacturing industries.

Parties here yesterday from Belvedere report that the Hon. Elihu White, late State Revenue Collector, whose illness has before been reported, is now rapidly improving. The opinion of his physician is that he is now on the road to recovery.

Mr. Gather Burgess, formerly of this place, but now of Norfolk, is in the city visiting his many friends.

Mr. W. G. Coppersmith, who was reported a few days ago to be very ill in Norfolk, arrived home yesterday greatly improved.

Mr. E. J. Shepherd, who has been

A CAPABLE mother must be a healthy mother. The experience of maternity should not be approached without careful physical preparation. Correct and practical counsel is what the expectant and would-be mother needs and this counsel she can secure without cost by writing to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. Mrs. CORA GILSON, Yates, Manistee Co., Mich., writes:

CAPABLE MOTHERHOOD

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—Two years ago I began having such dull, heavy, dragging pains in my back, menses were profuse and painful and was troubled with leucorrhoea. I took patent medicines and consulted a physician, but received no benefit and could not become pregnant.

"Seeing one of your books, I wrote to you telling you my troubles and asking for advice. You answered my letter promptly and I followed the directions faithfully, and derived so much benefit that I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough. I now find myself pregnant and have begun its use again. I cannot praise it enough."

Mrs. PERLEY MOULTON, Thetford, Vt., writes:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I think Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is an excellent medicine. I took several bottles of it before the birth of my baby and got along nicely. I had no after-pains and am now strong and enjoying good health. Baby is also fat and healthy."

Mrs. CHAS. GERBER, 304 South Monroe St., Baltimore, Md., writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—Before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was unable to become pregnant; but since I have used it my health is much improved, and I have a big baby boy, the joy and pride of our home."

spending several days in Princess Anne county, Va., visiting his father, has returned home.

Mr. Louis Selig is in New York this week purchasing a Christmas stock of jewelry.

Mr. Wesley Foreman, who has been in the city for several days visiting his parents, left yesterday for New Bern.

HERTFORD.

"CHOW-SHOW" TO COME—HALLOWEEN PARTY.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)

Hertford, N. C., Nov. 7.—Miss Kate Ferebee, of Camden, N. C., is the guest of Miss Bessie Riddick, on Church street.

"Henry Blount," as before announced, will appear here at the court-house next Friday night and give his popular audience-drawing lecture, "Chow-Chow," a subject that is peculiar in name, but humorous and pathetic. A four-dimmed audience follows a hearty laugh as the orator in his easy manner changes from a comic to a pathetic story. Mr. Blount is a child lover, and gives them all a chance to hear his lecture. The pupils of the Perquimans Academy have been given an invitation to attend.

The Halloween party given at the Armory Friday night by the young ladies of our town was not mentioned in the paper on account of the illness of the correspondent at the time, but he will say that it was one of the greatest social affairs of the year, and that the young ladies deserve unlimited credit for the large and entertaining program. The building presented a forest scene of fairly loveliness, and the ladies in their bright and gay costumes completed the scene as they flitted hither and thither 'neath the overhanging branches of the beech and maple trees that were scattered about the room.

EDENTON.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)

Edenton, N. C., Nov. 7.—Dr. Paul Campbell returned from New York yesterday, where he has been for several months.

Mr. Frank Bond is spending a few days with his friend, Mr. John Tooley, at Belhaven.

The ladies of the Episcopal Church will give a Bazaar and Chrysanthemum Tea at the court-house Thursday evening, beginning at 5 o'clock.

Mr. C. W. Rea visited Hertford yesterday on business.

Mr. L. L. Brinkley went to Norfolk to-day for a short stay.

Mr. E. L. Woodard, one of Norfolk's progressive wholesale merchants, is here on a short visit to his former home.

Mr. Wm. M. Bond is attending court at Dare county this week.

Rev. Mr. Newton, of Goldsboro, who is to assist Rev. Mr. Cowan in a meeting at the Baptist Church, arrived on this morning's boat.

Notice.—$300 Reward

Office Board of Harbor Commissioners, 159 Main Street, Norfolk, Va., Sept. 21, 1899.

The lawful dumping ground for all excavating done within the limits of this harbor is east of the Rip Raps. It is a criminal offence to dump at any other place.

It has been reported from time to time to this Board that what is known as SHORT DUMPING is being done from mud machines scows.

The Board, therefore, offers a standing reward of $300 to be paid to any person or persons who shall give evidence which shall lead to the detection and conviction of any party or parties who may be wilfully and maliciously guilty of dumping mud or excavation of any character from such scows at any place in this harbor other than the lawful dumping ground.
